Project Passes Over Bitter Protests

US National Bank Breaks Ground

NEW BANK — The new U.S. National Bank, Lemon Grove branch, will contain 6,050 square feet of space on its property at Broadway and Grove streets. The facility will have a drive-in teller's window and provide parking space for 40 cars which may enter from Broadway or Grove, and exit by the way of Lester st.

Ceremonies Mark Start of New Home For Bank

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new home of the U.S. National Bank in Lemon Grove were held this week on Wednesday.

The new bank will be built in early-American Spanish style and will be ready for occupany in December, according to Bill Paul, Lemon Grove branch manager.

The new bank will be located on the north side of Broadway at Grove street. The bank presently occupies the building at 7858 Broadway, next to the Piggly Wiggly store.

'Be Alert' Campaign Starts

"School's Open - Be Extra Alert."

Under this theme, a three-pronged safety campaign aimed at motorists, parents, and children started rolling last week under the sponsorship of the Automobile Club of Southern California and local civic and service organizations.

During the month-long, city-wide program, feature articles, radio and television spots, literature, bumper strips, and posters will be utilized to remind all concerned of the special care which must be used during the first few days of the new school year when some 3,000,000 children in the Southland will be going to and from school.

"Thousands of these youngsters will be kindergartners, out on their own for the first time," reminds Robert J. Cheney, Auto Club Public Safety Department manager.

"Motorists are urged to be extra cautious at intersections near schools where children may be expected to cross," Cheney stated. "Generally, these crossings will be indicated by yellow markings, but residential streets should always inspire extra caution."

Prima facie speed limit in school zones is 25 mph, but drivers must be sure their rate of speed is safe under the special conditions which exist, he pointed out.

Teachers, Staff Prepare For Record 4000 Students

In advance of the 4000 pupils expected next Monday, September 12, in the Lemon Grove schools, approximately 150 teachers and administrators are meeting this week at the traditional pre-school workshop in preparation for the opening of the fall term. In a series of district and school building meetings, the certificate staff readied itself for the largest enrollment Lemon Grove has ever known.

Beginning Tuesday morning of this week at a general faculty meeting at Palm Junior High, teachers gained inspiration for the months ahead from Dr. Manville Petteys, San Diego State College, who delivered the keynote address. They also had an opportunity to greet instructors new to the district. These new teachers had already met for two days last week, preparing for their first year at Lemon Grove.

Wednesday morning the Lemon Grove staff joined with thousands of other teachers from county schools for the annual San Diego County School Institute. New teachers eagerly returned to this area at noon for the Kiwanis luncheon held yearly in their honor. The afternoon was spent, as on Tuesday, in the individual buildings and classrooms, making ready for the avalanche of students that will sweep through those classroom doors on Monday.

At 1:00 p.m. Thursday, the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association holds its first business meeting of the year, followed by the annual beach party at La Jolla Shores.

Teachers, like pupils, will enjoy Friday, Admission Day, as the last legal school holiday until Thanksgiving.

UF Drive Chairman Names Four Aids

Top leadership in the United Fund campaign in Lemon Grove this fall will be somewhat of a family affair.

Lemon Grove Division Chairman Byron L. Netzley, superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District, has recruited his wife for the Lemon Grove residential campaign chairmanship.

Netzley also announced yesterday the appointment of three other group campaign chairmen—Sam Pernicano, the pizza merchant at 7810 Broadway, to handle the business firms campaign; Wallace D. Dorman, of the Dorman and Dorman law firm, to direct the professional group, and S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District, to head the government and education group.

Supported through the United Fund are all nine Community Chests in San Diego County, all of their Red Feather agencies, plus the American Red Cross and numerous other health and welfare organizations.

Ammons Demands Hearing Transcript

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Approval of assessments for a 1911 improvement act sewer project in Lemon Grove was voted Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors, despite bitter protests from Jackson Ammons, well known local property owner.

Ammons and Supervisor David W. Bird exchanged hot criticisms during the hearing, and Ammons stayed after the Board meeting to demand a transcript of the Supervisors' session. He remarked that, he wanted to be sure that what Supervisor Bird said was in the records.

The project under question was a $39,000 sewer job in the Waite Drive area, covering land on both sides of the freeway.

Ammons, with two lots on the edge of the district, protested his assessment, saying his property was already served by sewers. His assessment for one parcel, all that was assessed, would be about $900.

Warren Barney, engineer for the public works department, reported that the sewer line ran through Ammons' property, along its edge and no way to avoid assessing it could be recognized.

Ammons said he had offered the county an easement through his property, on the agreement that it would not be assessed, but that he had been told that the money he would get for the easement would pay for the assessment.

He reported that the court had awarded him $1, of which he got 30 cents and his lessee got 70 cents.

Bird said that must have been all it was worth, if the court said so. "You were against this from the start," Bird added.

"I wasn't," Ammons answered. "And look at me, Mr. Bird, I want to tell you something."

The assessments were approved, but Ammons stayed on, to demand a transcript of the session. Bertram McLees Jr., assistant county counsel, said Ammons would have to pay the cost of making the transcription.

Falling Tree Injures SV Youth

Three Spring Valley boys climbing a tree caused one of them to suffer a broken leg last Saturday, when the tree toppled over, throwing them to the ground.

Jimmy Belchamber, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Belchamber, 9065 Rosedale, was taken to Grossmont Hospital for treatment and was retained while his leg mends.

Jimmy and his two friends were climbing a eucalyptus tree, with Jimmy as the "top man", when the tree fell, pulling up roots and all.

Jimmy was pinned under the tree and when he was pulled out it was discovered his right leg was broken. The tree fell with such force, it crushed a metal fence.

The two boys climbing with Jimmy were not injured.

Equalization Board Announces Ratios

In accordance with a new statute, the State Board of Equalization today announced the ratio percentages of assessed to full cash value of locally assessable tangible properties, for all 58 counties of California.

The statewide average is at little variance with the county averages. All are within the tolerance area and consequently the State Board of Equalization has not found it necessary to issue an equalization order in any county.

The county averages range from 19.3 per cent in El Dorado and Tehama counties to 27 per cent in Kings county. The statewide average is 22.6 per cent.

St. Augustine Classes Start September 12

The first full day of classes of the new term at St. Augustine High School will be Monday, Sept. 12, but incoming freshmen reported Tuesday, Sept. 6, Very Rev. John R. Aherne, O.S.A., school principal, has announced.

The freshmen, who comprised the largest group of ninth graders to enter the school in the past five years, spent Tuesday making class schedules and completing the school's orientation program.

Sophomores reported Wednesday, juniors today, and seniors tomorrow, Father Aherne said.

A new course titled "Cultural Survey of Western Civilization" has been added to the senior class schedule, Father Aherne announced. The seminar-type class will be taken by the top half of the senior class and will be conducted by a faculty committee of eight.

The new course, which is designed to give the students an introduction into the development of the arts and the history of ideas, will be taught twice weekly through two semesters.

Trustees Approve Salary Increase

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees recently approved new salary schedules which represented a 4.13 per cent increase over existing schedules. The new salary range for teachers will be $5,050 to $9,900 thus maintaining the favorable position of the Grossmont District to attract and retain a high quality of teaching personnel. Superintendent Lewis Smith pointed out that the salary schedule is made possible by rigid economy in other expenditures and by an overload which has been assumed by the teachers in the District.

Classified schedules also received the 4.13 per cent increase. The schedules for all classified employes are based upon prevailing rates in business, industry, and other governmental agencies.

Administrative salary schedules were upped by the same percentage and were said to be average for similar positions paid in other school districts.

The Board authorized a six months' trial use of a security patrol to control vandalism, breaking windows and damage primarily by younger children at a cost of $163 per month.

Five to Run for Three Hospital Posts

Two new names will be added to three regulars appearing on the ballot for directors of the Grossmont Hospital District. The five will compete for three directorships at the general elections November 8.

The new candidates are Dr. Melvin Crain, assistant professor of political science at San Diego State College, and Hebert E. Abell, a market manager and vice president of the El Cajon Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Crain, 38, lives at 12147 Lemon Crest dr., Lakeside. He was elected to the Democratic County Central Committee in the June primaries and was elected vice chairman of the committee. He is married and has four children.

Abell is 28 and lives at 1807 Double D dr., El Cajon, with his wife and five children. He is vice president of the El Cajon Jaycees. He is finance chairman for the Eastern San Diego County Fair.

Seeking re-election are the three incumbents, President R. Marvin Jackson of Grossmont, who has served since the district was formed; Jack C. Atkinson, of El Cajon, who replaced Stanley Andrews two years ago, and Forace L. Boyd, of Lakeside, who was also elected at the formation of the district.

Sixth Annual Sheriff's Rodeo Due for Westgate Park Showing

The sixth annual Sheriff's Rodeo will be held again this year in Westgate Park, Saturday, Sept. 17, at 8 p.m., and Sunday, Sept. 18, at 2 p.m. There are theatre type seats to accommodate 8,000 persons and unlimited space for parking.

The colorful added feature of the Sheriff's Rodeo, an exhibition one hour prior to the rodeo by approximately 500 performers from San Diego square dance clubs, is a show in itself in addition to the rodeo.

Terry Gates, who will represent the Sheriff's Assn. as Queen, was chosen from all the square dance groups in San Diego County and will present awards to performers and amateur horsemen.

The guest stars of the rodeo will be Sheb Wooley, who has the role of Pete Nolan in "Rawhide" on the CBS Television Network. (Sheb is also well known for his 1958 MGM recording "The Purple People Eater"), and Paul Brinegar, who has the supporting role of "Wishbone" the camp cook in the same series.

There will be 150 of the outstanding cowboys of the country competing in the saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, bull dogging, and wild cow milking. The Association has posted a purse of $3,000 added money, which means the performers will be competing for cash prizes of $7,000.

The opening Grand Entry of amateur horsemen will display an estimated $200,000 worth of silver-mounted saddles and bridles. Horsemen from as far north as San Francisco will be here to compete for prizes in the Grand Entry.

The Rodeo, as in the past is sponsored and staged by the San Diego County Sheriff's Relief Assn., a non-profit organization. Funds derived from the rodeo are for the aid of the San Diego Sheriff's Officers who become injured in the line of duty, or to the families of those killed while serving the County.

Tickets may be purchased from any Deputy Sheriff or from the Sheriff's Sub-Stations located in Encinitas, Vista, Escondido, El Cajon, Lemon Grove, or the Main Sheriff's Office, 22 West "C" Street, San Diego.

BULLDOGGER IN ACTION—Bulldoggers, calf ropers, bronc riders all will be seen in the Sixth Annual Sheriff's Rodeo, coming September 16 and 17 to Westgate Park. More than 150 outstanding cowboys will vie for $7000 prize money in this annual event. The rodeo is sponsored by the San Diego County Sheriff's Relief Association. Funds from the rodeo are for the aid of San Diego Sheriff's Officers who have become injured in the line of duty, or for the families of officers who have been killed while serving the county.

The United Fund appeal is under way again and this community's share is $7,216.

As is the custom of this newspaper, it is advised that you plan all of your charity giving through the United Fund each year so that you may properly reject the myriad requests which come for your financial help from time to time.

If your pet charity is not under the auspices of the United Fund you may want to withhold that amount from your giving, but it is usually axiomatic that the worthwhile charities are under the UF wing.

United Fund's plan of distributing the charity dollar has nearly done away with the out-and-out dishonest "charity collectors", but some remain.

Not all groups collecting for charity are dishonest but more and more of them are encouraged every time an off-shoot group wages a successful campaign.

There are some that need further study by you before you give. If, after getting these facts, you want to give, you do so with full knowledge of the group's operation and intent.

The Better Business Bureau of San Diego heartily invites your attention to compilation it has on some fund-raising groups. These are.

'Rummage Sale' To Help Bolster Chamber Funds

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, seeking ways to raise funds to tide the organization through the remainder of the year, heard President Larry Folda's plans for a community "rummage sale", Tuesday.

He told the board of directors at its monthly meeting at El Morocco, that such an event could be used to bring area residents to the business section of Lemon Grove.

Under Folda's sketchy outline, merchants would be asked to supply the "rummage". Area wide publicity would bring in bargain-seakers, he said. He also said a special board meeting would be held to set the time and place, if the event is held.

The board agreed to the annual contract with the Lemon Grove-El Cajon railway in which the west side of the railroad property, together with the plaza area, is leased for $40 a year.

The resignation of Mrs. Clois Peavler, paid secretary of the chamber was accepted with regrets. Mrs. Peavler will take up duties with her brother, Captain Jesse Lee, who operates an advertising specialties firm. Captain Lee, who is executive secretary of the chamber, said that expansion of his business to include a Lemon Grove office for the Western Union, and the formation of a travel agency, all at his Imperial and North sretets office, required her full time services there. Mrs. Peavler had been a part-time employe at both places.

The board also voted to invite College Grove business firms to join the chamber. Several firms are already members it was pointed out.

Transit System Hopes to Extend Valley Service

Residents of Heritage Homes, Spring Valley Estates, and Tinkerbell Homes may soon enjoy metropolitan bus service. This fact was brought out in an application made to the California Public Utilities Commission by the San Diego Transit System.

The new service would be an extension of route "11", said James C. Haugh, vice president and general manager of the System. The request, if granted, would provide service from the present terminal at Olvera and Mira Flores Avenues in Valencia Park to Jamacha and Elkelton Roads by way of Detroit Avenue, Skyline Drive, Brookhaven Road, Paradise Valley Road, and Sweetwater Road.

Two recent surveys of families in this area indicate a desire. for such service, according to Haugh.

Hourly service is proposed Mondays through Fridays from 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

For the first time we're beginning to hear about the Elm Bark Beetles. The reason we have not had them to contend with before is because we have not had a drought like the present one. The Elm Bark Beetle attacks trees only when the bark becomes very dry.

Therefore, keeping your trees well-watered is the first important step toward getting rid of this infestation. If it becomes severe and you see numerous little black beetles running in and out of the bark, your only recourse is to spray with a combination of malathion and dicldrin, which is very effective. But the principle precaution to protect these trees now and in the future, is to never permit them to become dry.

One dangerous way of spreading the infestation is to cut down trees inhabited by Elm Beetles and stack the wood for burning in the fireplace. The larva of the beetles has been known to emerge from these logs as much as three months after they have been stacked.

concerning the "community services district", according to A. McPhail, news chief of the County News Service.

Such a district was recently formed in Poway and another is in the works for the same general vicinity, he says.

The beauty of such a district, say those who have studied them, is that they can be organized for almost any kind of purpose and changed, cut down or enlarged, as voters wish. It can be increased in the matter of services as well as area.

A community services district will provide services of certain kinds but it falls far short of the needs of a community which wants to form its own government, its own character, and protect the integrity of its own boundaries. Only by incorporation can this be done.

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley are suffering a "nibbling" syndrome at the hands of the larger cities. Each of these communities are being reduced so gradually, and so regularly that it isn't apparent to all of the residents.

Lemon Grove could establish its city boundaries to an area a mile wide and the length of the business district and form a city that would enjoy an extremely light tax rate. It would be so much cheaper to live in such a city that all the surrounding areas would want to annex. By such incorporation, the services tailored to the community could be supplied.

The other alternative, of course, is piecemeal annexations by the city of San Diego.

Our independent and rather restricted survey of motorists knowledge of the new drivers' law provided an interesting fact. Many of them are confused as to the maximum speed limits of trucks.

Governor Brown, at election time, you may recall, promised our motoring public greater safety by ordering two deterrent laws. One was the loss-of-license penalty for drunken drivers. The other was the setting of an absolute speed limit.

Most motorists are aware of the stricter laws regarding drinking and all should be aware of the 65 miles an hour maximum speed set for passenger autos. We found some confusion exists in the speed limit for trucks. At first, the law was to restrict trucks to 45 miles an hour but by the time it was written into the California Vehicle Code it gave permission for higher speed to certain trucks.

Because some motorists are not aware that higher speeds are permitted trucks under certain conditions, it has the effect of suggesting that the CHP lads are not enforcing the law equally. "Not so," was the word we got from John Annis, Calif. Highway Patrol officer who lives in our community.

The Code gives truckers the privilege of attaining a speed of 65 miles an hour if the trucks have no more than two axels and are traveling over a multi-laned highway. Buses, which usually have more than two axels is an exception. Pick-up trucks are not regarded as trucks as far as speed control is concerned. They may be driven at 65 miles an hour without breaking the law.

Another influence on drivers' impression is when these buses or trucks pass them when they are laying right against the 65 mile mark on their speedometer. Tests by CHP indicate the average speedometer on a passenger car is ten per cent fast. This newspaper believes they are made that way intentionally so as to give cars a better "indicated" performance.

For those motorists who think the law is being scoffed at regularly when those big trucks and buses sweep past, let them know this is not the case.

Whether lobbyists for the bus and truck lines were able to get the changes into the absolute 45 m.p.h. truck speed law is immaterial. The fact remains that truck drivers stay within the Code because in general, they are professionals and are better drivers than you or me. The most important, it is reassuring to know that the CHP men view all motorists alike. If there's an infraction, the truckers get cited just as quickly as the rest of us.

Highway Patrol Issues Warning

The California Highway Patrol has issued a warning to motorists whose cars are equipped with trailer hitches to make certain the hitch does not cover the license plate in violation of the state vehicle code.

License plates on nearly all late model automobiles are located in the center of the bumper and are easily obscured by many types of trailer hitches.

"When this occurs," declared CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden, "the trailer hitch is illegal and the motorist is subject to arrest. The license plate must be in a position to be clearly visible and this requirement is not met when the hitch is in the way."

The CHP official suggested solving the problem by either removing or modifying the hitch when it is not in use, or by installing one that can be adjusted so that it does not cover the license plate.

Institute Urges Bike Safety

More students are riding bicycles to and from school than ever before, according to the Bicycle Institute of America.

"Bike riding is one of the safest participant activities in the nation," the Institute states, "but, student cyclists are failing to protect themselves from mishaps as fully as possible through careful observance of simple traffic laws.

"According to a recent survery by the 4-H Club, 52.3 per cent of the low bicycle accident rate figures are directly attributable to the cyclist's failure to observe traffic laws. About 31.6 per cent of the mishaps have been judged as the rider's failure to control the bike properly. Only 1.4 per cent of the accidents are due to mechanical failure of the bike, and 14.7 per cent are the motorists' responsibility.

Obey Traffic Rules

"Children, authorities say, should be taught that the bike is a vehicle. As such, it is subject to all vehicle traffic laws. Riders drive with traffic, on the right-hand side of the road. They must obey all stop, caution and warning signs and give the pedestrian the right-of-way. Each bike should include, as standard equipment, lights, reflectors and warning devices as required by local law, the Bicycle Institute of America has pointed out.

"Police officials have pointed out that a well maintained bike is a necessity if it is to be dependable as school transportation, and emphasized that cyclists who learn and observe the necessary traffic regulations almost invariably make superior automobile drivers in shorter-than-average periods of time."

Bicycle Safety Rules

The following bicycle safe riding rules should be adhered to the utmost. It might be a good idea to tack these on the wall of the child's room or some other place where they can be seen.

1—Observe all traffic regulations, red and green lights, one-way streets, and stop signs.

3—Have white light on front and danger signal on rear, for night riding.

4—Have satisfactory signaling device, to warn of approach.

8—Never carry other riders, or packages that will obstruct the vision or prevent proper control of the cycle.

9—Be sure your brakes are operating efficiently and keep your bicycle in perfect running condition.

10—Slow down at all street intersections and look right and left before crossing.

11—Always use proper hand signals for turning and stopping.

12—Don't weave in and out of traffic or swerve from side to side.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long sleeved, floor length gown of tulle and lace over satin, the front of which was studded with white pearls and iridescent sequins. Her illusion veil was held by a head piece of lace covered with pearls and sequins. She carried a stephanotis cascade centered with white orchids.

Best man was John Dukes and ushers were Kelman Aiken, Alex Cremidon, Larry Gangwisch, and David Olson.

A reception was held in the church social hall. The cake, decorated with pink roses and wedding bells, was made by Mrs. Catherine Shannon.

Wearing a navy blue two-piece sheath with white and navy accessories, young Mrs. Sutherland left with her husband for a honeymoon at Big Bear Lake from which they will return to reside at 4425½ Rosebud, La Mesa.

Mrs. Sutherland was graduated from Helix High in 1956 and from San Diego State College in June, 1960. SD State Expects 11,000 Enrollment

More than 11,000 students are expected to be enrolled at San Diego State when classes formally open September 19, President Malcolm A. Love announced today.

This will represent a gain of some one thousand over last year's peak enrollment of 10,172. The physical sciences, business management, and education are expected to attract the largest numbers of majors.

The faculty will number a record 586 members, Love said. This will represent a gain of 16 positions over last year.

Two new degrees will be offered with the start of the semester. They are the master of science degree in geology and the bachelor of arts degree in astronomy. The total number of degrees available at San Diego State is now: Bachelor of Arts, 38; Bachelor of Science, 21; Master of Arts, 36; and Master of Sciences, 9.

Three more residence halls will open during the week of September 10. Each will house 200 students. This will make a total of five dormitories on the campus, three for women and two for men. The first two opened with the start of last year's fall semester.

Other new physical facilities include a new Education Building addition containing 36,000 square feet and costing $748,700; and an addition to the Health Services Building with 294,000 square feet at a cost of $9,326. Still under construction are the Men's Gymnasium, 92,000 square feet, $2,600,000, and the Engineering Building, 92,000 square feet, $2,592,000.

Here is a brief calendar of back-to-college events: September 10, Opening of new residence halls; September 11, President's reception for all faculty; September 12, President's welcome to new freshmen and first general faculty meeting; September 13, Freshman rally, 9 a.m., Greek Bowl, and paint the "S", 1:30 p.m. Black Mountain; September 14, 15, and 16, Registration and advising, 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m., library; and September 19, first day of classes.

Fifteen New Clubs For Kennedy Here

Charles Stone, San Diego County Coordinator of Kennedy Clubs announced the formation of 15 additional clubs during the last week.

Included in the increasing total of Kennedy Clubs was the first all girl group announced by Ronda Brewster of 3775 Eagle Street. The Mission Hills group includes 25 teenage girls who have been preparing to help greet Senator Kennedy on his arrival next Saturday, Sept. 10, at Lindbergh field.

Stone stated that due to the formation of new clubs daily the issuing of club charters has fallen somewhat behind, but he hoped to catch up in the next few days. So far, none have been announced for the L.G.-S.V. districts.

The Board of Directors announced a goal of 300 active clubs which would have a membership of approximately 25,000 Democrats, Republicans and Independents.

Stone reported that interest among Republicans has been running high with members of the G.O.P. included in many of the most active clubs.

Tentative plans are being made for a gigantic rally to be held of all the clubs just prior to election day, November 7. It is hoped that a speaker of national reputation or possibly Senator Kennedy himself will be available to address the gathering.

The latest total of Kennedy Clubs includes 15 in El Cajon Valley alone. Several more are expected to be chartered during the next week as interest in the campaign mounts due to Senator Kennedy's whirlwind trip to San Diego.

Club members have been very active in registering Kennedy supporters as the September 15 registration deadline approaches.

Stone urged that interested people contact Kennedy for President Clubs, 1209 Fifth Avenue or phone Belmont 2-6819 for information on how to form a club in their area.

Minors Need Work Permits, Officials Warn Employers

Working minors and their employers were reminded this week by John D. Wimmer, Coordinator of Junior Employment for the City Schools, Dr. Erven Brundage, Director of Pupil Personnel Service for the County Schools, and Ward Donley, Supervisor of Attendance, Sweetwater High School District, of the requirement that all employed youth under 18 years of age must have valid work permits.

They also warned that all current work permits issued by school authorities automatically expire September 19, one week following the reopening of school. Exceptions are made only for high school graduates, married minors, and minors who will reach their 18th birthday shortly after the reopening of schools. The expiration date on all permits is indicated in the upper right-hand corner.

The minor is responsible for securing a new work permit, Wimmer said. The student should obtain an application form at his own school; at the County Schools Service Center, 4005 Rosecrans; at the Junior Employment Service at the City Schools Education Center, Park Blvd. at El Cajon Blvd.; or at the Sweetwater Administration Center, 1140 Fifth Ave., Chula Vista.

The employer is responsible for terminating the employment of any minor for whom he does not have an active permit or for whom an application for a permit has not been made.

Minors aged 16 and 17 are permitted by California law to work 44 hours a week provided they obtain work permits and attend continuation classes four hours a week. E. R. Snyder Continuation School provides these classes for minors residing within the limits of the San Diego Unified School District. Minors residing in county school districts attend continuation classes as provided by each district.

Information regarding work permits and matters pertaining to child labor laws may be obtained by calling the City or County Schools offices.

Three women are now on duty at the hospital. Fifteen additional volunteers are needed.

"Gray Ladies will bring their usual personal services to patients and will assist staff nurses and administration as called upon to perform duties which may add to the patients' comfort and well-being," Mrs. McLaughlin said. "Gray Ladies regularly serve one or more days each week and are certified following a special training course and hospital orientation. It is a most rewarding community and personal service."

Volunteers may arrange an interview by calling CY 5-5121.

Their guests will be teachers from both Avondale and Rancho school., Mrs Donald Barnes, principal of Avondale, Mr. Sam Miles, principal of Rancho, Mrs. Loisene Copeland, secretary of Avondale, and Mrs. Phyllis Bailey, secretary of Rancho.

LITTLE LEAGUE DANCE

Dress is optional for the Spring Valley Little League dance being held this Saturday, September 10, at St. Martin's Church, on El Cajon blvd., starting at 9 p.m., and this opportunity is being taken by many of the ladies to dust off their cocktail or evening gowns, and dancing shoes, and put them to use once again. If you're more comfortable in slacks, fine, just as long as you're there to enjoy yourself.

Donations of $1 per person will be accepted at the door the night of the dance, if you have not gotten your tickets yet. You will find waiting for you, the Showmen, with music to dance by until 1 a.m., Al Rheinhart (I apologize for the incorrect name last week), who will entertain you with his famous accordion, and prizes galore.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBORS

Meet Betty and Wayne Johnson, who moved to Spring Valley a year ago with their two children Michael, 7, and Patrick, 3.

Betty was born in Palmer, Nebr., met Wayne in Wichita, Kansas, and they married eight years ago in Hot Springs, Arkansas. She is third vice president of the Avondale PTA, worked on the Telephone committee for the PTA last year, and as a hobby enjoys boating.

Wayne was born in Neale, Kansas; is co-owner of the Paint Spot in Lemon Grove, belongs to the Rotary and in his spare time enjoys boating, bowling, golf and skiing.

The Johnson's have known many cities in many states in their short lives, yet decided to settle here. We're glad of that, not only because of the recommendation it gives to Spring Valley, but, because of the kind of people they are.

Five Matinees Set For Circus At Westgate

"Fairyland Fantasy" presents the most beloved characters of fairy tales. "Monkeyland Melange" is a striking aerial ballet of gorgeously costumed girls aloft on a network of webs. "Folkland Fair" is a combination of the native dances of romantic old Hungary and exhibitions by the world's greatest dressage riders. "Orchids and Ice" is the luminous finale in which islanders and Eskimos join in melodic salute to the new states of Hawaii and Alaska.

Tickets are now on sale at Walker-Scott downtown and College Grove. Adult tickets are $3.50 and $2.50. Kids will be admitted for $1 Wednesday through Friday matinee and $1.75 and $1.25 Friday evening through Sunday night.

Christian Science

God's promises to mankind are being substantiated today through scientific understanding of Spirit. This thought key notes the Lesson-Sermon or "Substance" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Experiences of three men who received the fulfillment of divine promises—Abraham, Moses, and Zacharias—will be featured in the Bible selections.

Mary Baker Eddy counsels in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures."

Robert Whitaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Whitaker, Spring Valley, has gone to the Bible Institute of Los Angeles (BIOLA) for religious studies. Bob has been choir director of the Chapel Choir at S.V. First Baptist. His brother, John, will direct the choir temporarily, but a regular director has not been named.

The Girls Auxiliary and the Sunbeams, two girls organizations of the Bancroft Baptist Church, will meet this Saturday at 3 p.m.

Rev. Richard Chase, a Southern Baptist minister, will be guest speaker at Bancroft on September 18 at the evening services. Rev. Chase has just returned from behind the "Iron Curtain." While in Europe he took a graduate course at the University of Edinburgh (Scotland) and also studied near Zurich, Switzerland.

CASA DE ORO BAPTIST

Rev. Ernest Anderson, pastor of the Casa de Oro Baptist Church, reports on coming events of his church for people who do not have a church of their own.

Every Wednesday there are prayer meetings; Men's prayer meeting at 5:30 a.m.; Ladies prayer meeting at 10 a.m.; and the midweek "Hour of Power" at 7 p.m.

The Girls Missionary Guild for junior high age will get under way Thursday of this week, with Mrs. Marjorie Howell as counselor. The meeting will be held at the church at 3:30 p.m. The Junior Guild will soon be meeting, and further notices will be published, says Rev. Anderson. The Junior High GMG is for all 7th and 8th grade girls, and their meetings are each Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

This Friday marks the closing weeknight meeting of the church's Summer Youth program series for college, high school, and junior high school-age youth. The closing meeting will start with an "Around the World" buffet supper, with foods of all nations to be enjoyed. The dining room will be uniquely decorated with large handmade posters, depicting life in five foreign countries—also foreign dolls, Japanese lanterns, etc. Awards will be given Friday to the winners in the "Around the World" contest, as well as those with the best note books. Guest speaker will be Nettie Castle, who will show pictures taken during her trip around the world. The meeting promises to be a great climax to the summer program, which has proved a blessing, said Rev. Anderson.

The great Moody science film, "Red River of Life" will be shown at the church Sunday at 7 p.m. The film is reported to be fascinating, yet startling, as it reveals how fearfully and wonderfully we are made. It is the story of the most efficient mechanism in the world—the human heart and bloodstream. Motion pictures taken inside the human heart show how this delicate mechanism constantly keeps death away—makes both young and old stand in awe and adoration before the God of our creation. Everyone is invited to watch the film, Rev. Anderson says.

Following the Sunday evening services, the closing Sunday meeting of the Summer Youth program will be held in the church's lower auditorium. A most unique meeting has been planned, Rev. Anderson said.

The Youth meeting time will be changed September 18 to 6 p.m., when the groups will separate again. The meetings in all groups will be in the form of "Welcome" meetings for all new young people.

CONRAD LEMON GROVE MORTUARY

Local Jeweler Is Registered By Gem Society

Long hours of studying basic gemology and successfully completing a comprehensive written examination on the science of identifying and evaluating diamonds and other gem stones has qualified Mr. Glenn R. Nord, of Morrison-Adams, 7919 Broadway, Lemon Grove, to become a Registered Jeweler, a title of merit awarded by the American Gem Society, it was announced today.

Lester W. Moon, president of the international society of jewelers in making the announcement said, "Mr. Nord has qualified as a Registered Jeweler through his personal desire to increase his knowledge of gemology, and the store's method of doing business, which coincides with the principles set down by the Federal Trade Commission, the Better Business Bureau, and the business ethics of the Society."

In receiving this title, the firm will enjoy the privilege of being known as a Registered Jeweler which is awarded only to jewelry stores of proven integrity throughout the United States and Canada.

Completes Army Survey Course

Airman Third Class Tommy L. Gee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gee, 3858 Carancho st., Lemon Grove, completed the ten-week topographic surveying course at the Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va., August 12.

Gee received training in map and aerial photograph interpretation, mathematics and drafting to aid him in providing ground control data for military photogrammetric mapping and artillery survey purposes.

State Schools to Receive Federal Financial Aid

WASHINGTON — Several hundred California school districts soon should get payments from the Federal Government making up deficiencies in financial assistance grants for the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1959, U.S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel said following Congressional action on the Labor-Health, Education, and Welfare appropriations bill.

Because Congress previously had refused on two occasions to vote money needed to overcome shortage in available funds due to inaccurate estimates by the Office of Education, these districts for more than a year have been imploring California members of Congress to make a deficiency appropriation.

Some $1,250,000 was needed to "make whole" the California school agencies qualifying for such financial aid because they are in "Federally-impacted" areas. A number of these also were due sums aggregating almost $150,000 because they were required by decisions of State courts to refund certain real estate taxes equal to amounts which had been deducted from their "entitlements."

"It is deplorable it took so long to do justice to those educational agencies which are providing facilities and instruction for large numbers of "Federally-connected" pupils," Kuchel said, "but I am sure the belated payment will be just as welcome, if not more so, because it seemed unlikely to materialize."

The Grossmont Union High School District should soon receive payments up to an approximate $7,800 from the Federal Government, making up deficiencies in financial assistance grants for the year which ended June 30, 1959.

The Grossmont District qualified for Federal assistance in 1959 under Public Law 874 which gives financial aid to poor districts faced with great numbers of students who are children of federally employed parents. However, all the money coming to the District was not paid because funds ran out. The Grossmont District as well as other California districts so affected appealed to Senator Kuchel for help in the matter.

LOW GRADES DUE TO UNDETECTED READING DISABILITIES

Unknown to parents and teachers, undetected reading disabilities and inadequate basic reading skills may be a chief factor underlying low grades and emotional problems, revealed Eli T. Ross, M.Ed., Director of the El Camino Reading Clinic.

Director Ross pointed out that Dr. Conant, former president of Harvard University, disclosed in his recent survey that in some of our schools 40 percent of the children are not reading as they should. And if children cannot read as they should, how are they to be properly educated?

To eliminate the doubt and to provide the answer for concerned parents and educators, El Camino Diagnostic Reading tests are designed to probe beneath superficial reading skills, said Mr. Ross. Where reading problems are discovered, the 3-fold clinic program helps students achieve the best possible grades; Remedial for students having difficulty at school due to fundamental deficiencies, Developmental for students of any age not working to capacity and Accelerated for the superior student and adult needing a challenge to higher academic achievement.

For Diagnostic Testing, information and clinic workshop schedules, call or write the
